

Stadium regulations of Deutsche Bank Park

Eintracht Frankfurt Stadion GmbH (EFS) exercises the domiciliary rights in the entire area of Deutsche Bank Park. By entering the area of Deutsche Bank Park, users and visitors of Deutsche Bank Park acknowledge the validity of these Stadium Regulations, which are governed by private law below. If the Deutsche Bank Park is used based on a contract concluded with EFS, compliance with the Stadium Regulations is additionally guaranteed upon conclusion of the contract, subject to any deviating contractual provisions. The aforementioned contractual users undertake to inform their employees and other persons who gain access to Deutsche Bank Park within the framework of the execution of the contract of the Stadium Regulations and their validity, and to oblige them to comply with this Stadium Regulations.

§ 1 Scope and Use

1. The territorial scope of the Stadium Regulations extends over the entire area of Deutsche Bank Park, which is marked by the dotted line on the site plan in Annex 1 (hereinafter referred to as "Deutsche Bank Park"). The site plan is an integral part of these Stadium Regulations.
2. The Stadium Regulations apply to all persons at all times (24 hours a day) as soon as they enter the Deutsche Bank Park as pedestrian or drive through the entrance to the underground car park or the car access (Gate 3) with a vehicle. Persons staying on the premises of Deutsche Bank Park accept the regulations of the Stadium Regulations for Deutsche Bank Park as binding.
3. Deutsche Bank Park is not open to the public.
4. The regulations and conditions applicable to events which are in the Deutsche Bank Park, in particular those made by the organizers of events, are also binding in their respective version.

§ 2 Stay at Deutsche Bank Park

Only persons with the express permission of EFS are allowed to be in the Deutsche Bank Park outside opening hours and on days when no event is taking place. Unmanned aerial systems (drones) are prohibited from taking off, flying and/or landing in the entire area of Deutsche Bank Park.

§ 3 Access controls

Upon entering the Deutsche Bank Park, each person is obliged to present his or her admission ticket or other proof of authorization to the control, security and order services, as well as to police officers and other regulatory authorities, as well as to employees of EFS and the respective event organizer, without being asked to do so, and to hand it over for verification upon request. After passing through the turnstiles or other entrance terminals or access points, admission tickets are no longer transferable. During the stay in Deutsche Bank Park, the obligation to show and hand over tickets or other authorizations shall apply in the event of a corresponding request by the control, security or public order service or by police officers or other public order authorities as well as employees of EFS and the respective event organizer. A justification for the request to show the ticket is not required.

Persons who are unable to prove their authorization to stay in the area in which they are staying will be expelled from Deutsche Bank Park by the control-, security- or public order service or by police or other law enforcement officials. Persons who have been banned from Deutsche Bank Park by the abovementioned institutions or by the DFB, an organizer of the DFL, UEFA, FIFA, and/or by court order shall forfeit their right of admission and shall be excluded from events. Tickets entitle the holder to attend the specified event on the specified event day. After leaving the area of Deutsche Bank Park (Annex 1), with the ticket having been cancelled beforehand, the respective ticket loses its validity. Any misuse will result in the ticket being confiscated or blocked, immediate expulsion from Deutsche Bank Park and, if necessary, legal actions. Unauthorized trading of tickets, regardless of the location of Deutsche Bank Park and the parking areas, will always be reported to the police.

§ 4 Behavior in Deutsche Bank Park

1. Within Deutsche Bank Park, everyone must behave in such a way that no one else is harmed, endangered or - more than is unavoidable under the circumstances - obstructed or inconvenienced.
2. Everyone must comply with the instructions of the regulatory authorities, the police, the fire department, the ambulance service, the control and security service and the stadium spokesperson of Deutsche Bank Park as well as employees of EFS and the respective event organizer. Anyone who intentionally or negligently fails to comply with these instructions will be expelled from Deutsche Bank Park by the responsible law enforcement or security staff.
3. Persons with a valid ticket may only occupy the space assigned to them and may only use the designated entrances on the way there. For reasons of security and to avert danger, persons are obliged, on the instructions of the Deutsche Bank Park control and security service, the police and employees of EFS and the respective event organizer, to take other seats, if necessary also in other blocks, than those indicated on their valid ticket.
4. Persons who are obviously under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs or who are carrying weapons or similar dangerous objects as defined in § 5 and who do not consent to their seizure by the control and security service are excluded from Deutsche Bank Park. Persons with a blood alcohol concentration of more than 1.6 per mille are generally not permitted to enter Deutsche Bank Park.

Persons who, on the basis of their behavior or other indications or findings, are suspected of being subject to a local or nationwide stadium ban or house ban for sport events or other events, or who are under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, or who are carrying weapons or dangerous objects as defined by § 5, the control- and security service of Deutsche Bank Park or the police shall be entitled, with their consent, to inspect their clothing and containers in order to clarify the circumstances, to determine whether they are under the influence of alcohol or drugs, also by using technical means, or, in the case of a possible existing stadium ban, to check their identity by inspecting their identification documents. Anyone who does not give their consent in accordance with sentence 4 will be denied access to Deutsche Bank Park by the control and security service of Deutsche Bank Park or the police, or the person will be expelled from Deutsche Bank Park.

5. Persons suspected of having a contagious disease within the meaning of the Federal Epidemics Act or the Protection against Infection Act or similar safety-threatening diseases can be expelled from Deutsche Bank Park.
6. All entrances and exits in and around the Deutsche Bank Park, all accesses to spectator areas as well as escape and rescue routes and fire department gates must be kept clear without restriction.

§ 5 Prohibitions

- xii. Overnight stays, camping (e.g. camper vans, caravans) and camping in Deutsche Bank Park are prohibited.
- xiii. The parking of wheelchairs or walkers is only permitted with prior approval and in the parking areas provided for this purpose. At concerts and events with indoor use, wheelchairs and walkers are generally prohibited in the standing area (indoor area).

- xiv. In agreement with the City of Frankfurt and the police, individual visitors to Deutsche Bank Park may be permitted to carry larger flags than those specified in § 5 item 1. vi. For this purpose, such persons shall be issued with a flag pass bearing a photograph. EFS reserves the right, in agreement with the City of Frankfurt and the police, to make deviating individual arrangements with regard to section 1. vii.

§ 6 Violations

1. Persons who commit acts as defined in § 5 will be banned from Deutsche Bank Park and, in the case of soccer events, the German Football Association (Deutsche Fußball Bund e.V. (DFB)) will initiate the imposition of a nationwide stadium ban.
2. Persons committing acts within the meaning of § 5 shall be held liable for damages, insofar as damage has been caused by their acts.
3. Criminal offenses and misdemeanours are always reported to the police.
4. If there is suspicion that visitors have committed a criminal offense, charges will be filed. In the event of a misdemeanour, charges may be filed. Prohibited items carried on the premises will be confiscated by the Deutsche Bank Park control and security service and, if they are not required as evidence for a criminal investigation, will be returned once the conditions for confiscation no longer apply.

§ 7 Opening hours

1. Deutsche Bank Park may only be used during opening hours and must be vacated immediately at the end of this time at the latest.
2. The area of Deutsche Bank Park is open to the public on days when no events are held, shall be determined by EFS and announced by EFS.
3. The area of Deutsche Bank Park open to the public on event days, shall be determined and published by the respective event organizer.
4. The use or enter of the Deutsche Bank Park outside the opening hours or the contractually fixed use / rental period requires the written consent of EFS.
5. EFS reserves the right to temporarily close Deutsche Bank Park (in whole or in part) at any time for the purpose of maintenance and repair work or other events. Likewise, EFS is entitled to close individual areas, paths, stairs, parts of buildings, grandstands (in whole or in part) to third parties at any time. In the event of e.g. severe weather or weather conditions, this may also happen at short notice and without prior notice. In this respect, the contractual regulations apply to the contractual users of EFS. Entering Deutsche Bank Park during this time is prohibited.

6. In case of bad weather conditions (e.g. thunderstorms, heavy storms, heavy snowfall) it is forbidden to stay outside, especially under trees and on forest paths as well as near overhanging parts of buildings. It is necessary to independently watch out for possible falling or fallen objects. On days when there is no event, the area of Deutsche Bank Park must be vacated immediately and independently.
7. Limited winter service applies in the Deutsche Bank Park. It is prohibited to stay in areas that have not been cleared and/or gritted.
8. Opening hours of the parking lots and underground parking can be viewed on <https://www.deutschebankpark.de/>.

§ 8 Rooms

1. Changing rooms, wet areas, press conference room, media work rooms, function rooms
Access to the changing rooms and wet areas and other adjoining rooms is only permitted by contractual agreement with EFS during the agreed time. The press conference room and the adjoining media work rooms may only be entered or used by authorized persons. All function rooms and their facilities are to be entered or used in accordance with their intended purpose.
2. Office and ancillary rooms
The use of office and ancillary rooms shall be permitted only with the contractual consent of EFS. The use of technical equipment such as telephones, computers, copiers and the like shall also require the consent of EFS. Technical equipment may only be operated by instructed personnel and in-house technicians.
3. Business Area and boxes
The Business area and the boxes are not open to the public and may only be used by authorized persons with.
4. Training grounds and ancillary areas
It is forbidden to enter the training grounds, including the associated ancillary areas without authorization. The use of training materials (including soccer goals of all kinds), are available exclusively to the persons / groups registered with the EFS. The EFS decides on the release for use of the training grounds or training materials.

5. Operational Areas

Persons from outside the company are not allowed to drive on or enter the TV compound/ depot, the waste disposal area or other storage areas without permission from EFS.

6. Eintracht Frankfurt Fan Shop and Eintracht Frankfurt Museum

Access to the Eintracht Frankfurt Fanshop and Eintracht Frankfurt Museum is only possible on days when no events are taking place and during the public opening hours of Deutsche Bank Parks. The respective opening hours of the Eintracht Frankfurt Fanshop and Eintracht Frankfurt Museum are published on the respective websites. Changes at short notice are always possible.

§ 9 Cleanliness

All Persons entering the area of Deutsche Bank Park are obliged to treat Deutsche Bank Park and its facilities with care and to leave them in a clean condition. Damage must be avoided and, if necessary, reported immediately to EFS in writing. No waste, ashes, harmful liquids and the like may be poured or thrown into the toilets, flushing facilities and sinks. Waste shall be disposed of in the respective containers or trash receptacles provided. It is prohibited to defecate outside the restrooms or to contaminate the stadium facilities in any other way, especially by throwing things away. The unauthorized dumping of garbage and the unauthorized disposal of garbage and other objects in Deutsche Bank Park is prohibited.

§ 10 Advertising and decoration

1. Advertising measures of any kind whatsoever, as well as the placing of decorations and other objects, are generally prohibited in Deutsche Bank Park unless they are: permitted on the basis of contractually stipulated agreements by EFS and an obligation to restore the original condition after termination of the agreement exists within the scope of this agreement or has been permitted by written approval of EFS in individual cases.

Advertising measures are also those measures that are not carried out against payment of a separate fee, but - for whatever reason - serve to promote a company or a brand and may therefore in particular violate advertising guidelines under association law. The EFS or the control, security and / or order services may prevent advertising measures and, if necessary, seize advertising material used.

2. The distribution of flyers, advertising material, magazines or similar in Deutsche Bank Park and the surrounding areas is permitted, irrespective of other official regulations, only with the approval of the organizer or, on non-event days, by EFS.
3. Decorations and other objects that have been permissibly attached within the scope of events must be removed immediately after the end of the event. The hammering in of nails, hooks, etc. as well as the pasting of floors, walls, ceilings and furniture are generally prohibited. The attachment and use of ground nails and ground anchors are prohibited.

4. All superstructures must be registered in advance and approved by EFS. Proper assembly/disassembly, operation and safety measures are the responsibility of the respective organizer.
5. Filming and photography outside of event days for non-commercial and private purposes (e.g. during stadium tours) are generally possible. Restrictions (e.g. areas, motifs,) and changes remain reserved to EFS. Any other use, disclosure to third parties beyond private use, publication in the media or commercial use/distribution must be notified to EFS in advance and approved by it in writing.

§ 11 Sale of Goods, Food and Beverages

The offering for sale and the sale of goods of any kind, the distribution of printed matter or the carrying out of collections as well as the setting up of stalls, stands and the like in Deutsche Bank Park is prohibited, unless a contractual authorization with EFS and any necessary public-law permit have been obtained. Catering for users and visitors is permitted exclusively via the service provider engaged by EFS. Excluded from this are food and beverages from sponsoring activities of the organisers (so-called give-aways), which have been announced in advance and approved by EFS.

§ 12 Liability

The liability of EFS and its vicarious agents and assistants, of whatever nature, shall be limited to intent and gross negligence, with the exception of personal injury or in the cases provided for by law.

In the event of a slightly negligent breach of an essential contractual obligation (cardinal obligation), liability shall be limited to foreseeable damage typical of the contract. EFS shall not be liable in the event of a slightly negligent breach of secondary obligations that are not essential contractual obligations. EFS or the organiser shall not be liable for damage caused by visitors, users, their agents or other third parties. EFS shall not be liable for the loss of objects unless this is due to culpable conduct on the part of the staff.

Visitors are liable according to the applicable legal regulations. Parents are liable for their children. Accidents and/or damage must be reported to EFS immediately and claims must be submitted in writing.

§ 13 Escape routes and escape doors as well as parking areas

Marked escape and rescue routes, doors and gates may not be obstructed or obstructed, over parked or in any way altered in their function. All escape and rescue routes must be kept clear at all times, and escape doors may only be opened in an emergency. Wedging or holding doors and gates open is not permitted. It is prohibited to disable safety equipment.

The lawn, aisles and other areas may not be used for parking or storage purposes without the consent of EFS.

§ 14 Use of vehicles in Deutsche Bank Park

All vehicular traffic in Deutsche Bank Park is to be avoided. Insofar as the use of vehicles in Deutsche Bank Park is necessary, the use of vehicles requires a written access permit of EFS. The German road traffic regulations (Straßenverkehrsordnung (StvO)) and a speed limit of 10km/h apply on the area of Deutsche Bank Park.

1. Outside event days, access for authorized vehicles is only possible via gate 3 (Annex 1). Access is only possible during the official opening hours of Deutsche Bank Park. Access to the premises will be controlled by the security service at the access barrier. Unauthorized vehicles will not be allowed.
2. On event days, vehicle traffic in Deutsche Bank Park is only possible during the set-up and dismantling periods. During the events, all vehicles are prohibited from driving thru the area of Deutsche Bank Park. The ban on driving applies from 60 minutes before the stadium opens and ends only after clearance by the security service (approximately 60 minutes after the end of the event), unless otherwise communicated from EFS. Police, ambulance, and fire department vehicles on duty/standby are exempt from this ban.
3. Only EFS can issue an access permit to the Deutsche Bank Park premises on days when no event is taking place, and only the respective event organizer can additionally issue such a permit on event days. The access permit must be presented at the gate without being asked and must be clearly visible in the parked vehicle.
4. Driving on sports fields, green areas, lawns and the interior of the stadium is prohibited unless written permission has been granted by EFS or in case of imminent danger.
5. Vehicles may only be parked in the designated and signposted parking areas. Parking is prohibited on streets and paths in Deutsche Bank Park. Marked escape and rescue routes, fire department access roads, doors and gates may not be obstructed or parked in.

6. Barricaded areas (e.g. by bollards or grids) are not to be entered without permission from EFS. The independent opening or removal of barriers (e.g. on forecourts and access areas) is prohibited.
7. Vehicles parked in violation of traffic regulations will be towed away for a fee. This also applies to vehicles parked on the Deutsche Bank Park premises (including parking lot P4) outside opening hours without EFS approval.
8. Violations of the above regulations will result in the revocation of the entry permit. In the event of a repeat offence, the vehicle driver/owner will be banned from the premises or reported to the police.
9. EFS and the respective organizer reserve the right to make special arrangements.

§ 15 Use of car park and parking lots in Deutsche Bank Park

When using the parking garage, the German road traffic regulations applies. When using designated parking spaces in the car park and other vehicle parking areas, users also undertake to comply with the following provisions:

1. All users of the car park of Deutsche Bank Park require a written access permit. The maximum entry height into the parking garage is 2.00m.
2. Outside event days, access is only possible for authorized vehicles. Access is only possible during the opening hours of the car park of Deutsche Bank Park. Access to the parking garage is controlled by the security service at the access barrier. Unauthorized vehicles will be turned away. EFS is entitled to change opening hours and access conditions at any time.
3. On event days, access is only possible with a valid access permit for the corresponding event. The access permit must be presented without being asked before entering and must be clearly visible in the parked vehicle. All persons in the vehicle require a ticket, work pass or other valid authorization from the event organizer to enter the vehicle.
4. Contamination by oil, gasoline, battery acid or other substances must be avoided and reported to EFS if necessary. The costs for any necessary removal/disposal will be borne by the polluter.
5. The users of the car park undertake to observe the applicable fire protection regulations. The garages must be used with the greatest possible consideration. Only approved, operational and registered vehicles may be parked. Boats, camping trailers, etc. may not be parked. Vehicles over 2.00 meters in height may not enter the parking garage. Use for these vehicles must be approved by EFS on a case-by-case basis.

6. In addition, it is prohibited, in particular, in car park, at the entrances and on other vehicle parking areas, to:
- to make open fire or light;
 - to smoke;
 - to burn pyrotechnics, fireworks, rockets, Bengal fires, smoke powder or other pyrotechnic objects;
 - to set up furniture (e.g. garden chair, table, beer bench);
 - to use mechanical and electrically operated noise instruments or musical instruments, sound/music systems;
 - Collections, advertisements and the distribution of leaflets and other printed matter require the prior written consent of EFS. This also applies to the distribution of promotional items,
 - samples, food and beverages;
 - to store, drain, transfer or fill flammable, combustible or environmentally hazardous objects/substances such as gasoline, oil, paint, used tires, batteries, fuel containers, etc;
 - Refuel vehicles;
 - Charge vehicles with electricity at unauthorized locations;
 - to lock or shut off or shut in ventilation systems;
 - to leave the engine running longer than for arrival or departure;
 - In the parking garage and other vehicle parking areas, perform repair, care or maintenance work on vehicles;
 - Wash vehicles or vehicle parts;
 - to operate electrical equipment or generators;
 - to dump or dispose of trash or other items;
 - to spend the night or camp.

EFS reserves the right to make special arrangements or changes at short notice.

§ 16 Video surveillance (CCTV)

For security reasons and to avert danger, the Deutsche Bank Park and the access and exit routes are under video surveillance (CCTV). The video surveillance will be indicated by a clearly visible notice upon entering Deutsche Bank Park.

§17 Use of other parking lot in Deutsche Bank Park

The "Gleisdreieck", "Waldparkplatz" and "Isenburger Schneise" parking lots fall within the scope of these stadium regulations during certain events (e.g. Eintracht Frankfurt home games, concerts, etc.). The parking lot "P9" can only be used with a written access permit.

The above-mentioned parking spaces are only open on event days or during parking lot opening hours. The instructions and requests of the personnel deployed or the signage must be followed. Use is at your own risk. The liability of EFS is limited to intent or gross negligence. Limited winter service applies.

1. The respective valid parking lot usage regulations apply.
2. The use of the parking spaces/areas is subject to a fee. The respective rental price shall be determined and communicated by EFS.
3. Outside opening hours, the parking areas are closed by barriers. Any use of these areas outside opening hours constitutes a special use and requires written permission from EFS.
4. Overnight stays, camping (e.g. camper vans, caravans) as well as camping on the parking lots of Deutsche Bank Park are prohibited.
5. Barricaded areas (e.g. by bollards, grids, barriers) are not to be entered or used without permission from EFS. The independent opening or closing of barrier systems or the removal of barriers is prohibited.
6. Vehicles parked in violation of traffic regulations will be towed away for a fee. This also applies to vehicles parked in the parking spaces outside the opening hours without permission from EFS..

In addition, it is particularly prohibited in the parking lots and access areas to:

- Open fire, barbecue or light;
- Burning pyrotechnics, fireworks, rockets, Bengal fires, smoke powder or other pyrotechnic objects;
- Setting up furniture (e.g. garden chair, table, beer bench);
- to use mechanical and electrically operated noise instruments or musical instruments, sound/music systems;
- Collections, advertisements and the distribution of leaflets and other printed matter require the prior written consent of EFS. This also applies to the distribution of promotional items,
- samples, food and beverages;

- Storing, draining, transferring or filling flammable, combustible or environmentally harmful objects/substances such as gasoline, oil, paint, used tires, batteries, fuel containers, etc;
- Drain water or sewage; clean camping toilets or dispose of their contents;
- Perform repair, care or maintenance work on vehicles;
- Wash vehicles or vehicle parts;
- Operate electrical equipment or generators;
- Dumping or disposing of trash or other items;
- to park vehicles and trailers of any kind not authorized by the police.

EFS reserves the right to make special arrangements or changes at short notice.

§ 18 Final provision

1. These Stadium Regulations shall come into force on the day of the commissioning of Deutsche Bank Park.
2. Legal remedies against individual measures from these stadium regulations are, insofar as other legal bases do not conflict with this, excluded.
3. EFS is entitled to amend these Stadium Regulations at any time and without giving reasons. Any new edition of these Stadium Regulations shall automatically supersede and replace any previous edition.
4. The hazard prevention ordinance (Gefahrenabwehrverordnung) of the city of Frankfurt am Main also applies.
